

I, NIGEL DAVID FRANKLAND of Estates Management, University of Reading, Building L046, London Road, Reading, RG1 5AQ

DO SINCERELY AND SOLEMNLY DECLARE as follows:

1. I am the Head of Estates Management of the University of Reading ("the University") and in that capacity I have in my custody or control the documents of title relating to the freehold and leasehold properties belonging to the University.
2. The University is and has been since 1995 the owner within the meaning of Section 31(6) Highways Act 1980 of the land known as Lady Place, High Street, Sutton Courtenay ("Lady Place") which is more particularly delineated shaded yellow on the plan attached and marked as Exhibit A.
3. The University is and has been since 2003 the owner within the meaning of Section 31(6) Highways Act 1980 of the land known as Willington Down Farm, Long Wittenham ("Willington Down") which is more particularly delineated shaded yellow on the plan attached and marked as Exhibit B.
4. On 7th July 2010 I deposited with Oxfordshire County Council on behalf of the University a statement ("the Statement") accompanied by a plans delineating Lady Place and Willington Down and confirming the ways which have been dedicated as highways over Lady Place and Willington Down.
5. I confirm that since the deposit of the Statement and plans no additional ways have been dedicated over Lady Place or Willington Down and that at the present time the University has no intention of dedicating any other public rights of way over Lady Place or Willington Down.

AND I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true by virtue of the Statutory Declarations Act 1835.

DECLARED by the said NIGEL DAVID FRANKLAND
